Copyright

The paper submitted should contain original unpublished work. The Editorial Office does not accept responsibility for damage or loss of papers submitted. Upon acceptance of an article, the author will be asked to give a non-exclusive copyright of the article to the publisher. Our aim is to provide a decision on publication of articles within one-month period of reception in our editorial office.

3. ARTICLE STRUCTURE

Title page

- Title. Concise and informative. Titles are often used in information-retrieval systems. Avoid abbreviations and formulae where possible.
- Author names and affiliations. Where the family name may be ambiguous (e.g., a double name), please indicate this clearly. Present the authors' affiliation addresses (where the actual work was done) below the names. Indicate all affiliations with a lower-case superscript letter immediately after the author's name and in front of the appropriate address. Provide the full postal address of each affiliation, including the country name, and, if available, the e-mail address of each author.
- Corresponding author. Clearly indicate who will handle correspondence at all stages of refereeing and publication, also post-publication. Ensure that telephone and fax numbers (with country and area code) are provided in addition to the e-mail address and the complete postal address.
- Present/permanent address. If an author has moved since the work described in the article was done, or was visiting at the time, a "Present address" (or "Permanent address") may be indicated as a footnote to that author's name. The address at which the author actually did the work must be retained as the main, affiliation address. Superscript Arabic numerals are used for such footnotes.

Abstract

A concise and factual abstract is required. The abstract should state briefly the purpose of the research, the principal results and major conclusions. An abstract is often presented separately from the article, so it must be able to stand alone. For this reason, References should be avoided, but if essential, then cite the author(s) and year(s). Also, non-standard or uncommon abbreviations should be avoided, but if essential they must be defined at their first mention in the abstract itself. It should have not more than about 300 words.

Keywords

Immediately after the abstract, provide a maximum of five keywords, using American spelling and avoiding general and plural terms and multiple concepts (avoid, for example, "and", "of"). Be sparing with abbreviations: only abbreviations firmly established in the field may be eligible. These keywords will be used for indexing purposes.

Introduction

State the objectives of the work and provide an adequate background, avoiding a detailed literature survey or a summary of the results.

Methodology/ Experimental

Provide sufficient detail to allow the work to be reproduced. Methods already published should be indicated by a reference: only relevant modifications should be described.

Results

Results should be clear and concise.

Discussion

Discussion must explore the significance of the results of the work, often in the concluding paragraph, not repeat them. Avoid extensive citations and discussion of published literature. A combined Results and Discussion section is often appropriate.

Conclusion

The main conclusion of the study may be presented in a short Conclusions section, which may stand alone or form a subsection of a Discussion or Results and Discussion section.

Acknowledgement (if any)

Collate acknowledgements in a separate section at the end of the article before the references and do not, therefore, include them on the title page, as a footnote to the title or otherwise. List here those individuals who provided help during the research (e.g., providing language help, writing assistance or proof reading the article, etc.).

4. EXAMPLE FOR FIGURES

Please send your figures both embedded in your word file and in the original format (not embedded). For printing a vector format is preferred. In case of photos etc. a resolution of 300 dpi should be provided. Please make sure that all text in the figures is readable (font size \geq 8pt). Figures should be centered.

5. EXAMPLE FOR TABLES

Tables should be centered.

Table 1 Energy consumption and costs vs time

Month	Consumption [kWh]	Costs [USD]
January	10.5	2000
February	11.0	2500
March	7.8	1400
April	4.5	1050

6. EXAMPLE FOR FORMULAE

Formulae should be numbered consecutively throughout the manuscript as (1), (2). In cases where the derivation of formulae has been abbreviated, it is of great help to the reviewers if the full derivation can be presented on a separate sheet (not to be published). Formulae should be centered.

$$f = \frac{1}{2\pi\sqrt{LC}} \quad (1)$$

and by:

$$P_{Total,Gen} = \sum_{j=1}^m P_{Gen_j} \quad (2)$$

7. REFERENCES

Citation in text

Please ensure that every reference cited in the text is also present in the reference list (and vice versa). Any references cited in the abstract must be given in full. Unpublished results and personal communications are not recommended in the reference list, but may be mentioned in the text. If these references are included in the reference list they should follow the standard reference style of the journal and should include a substitution of the publication date with either "Unpublished results" or "Personal communication" Citation of a reference as "in press" implies that the item has been accepted for publication.

Web reference

As a minimum, the full URL should be given and the date when the reference was last accessed. Any further information, if known (DOI, author names, dates, reference to a source publication, etc.), should also be given. Web references can be listed separately (e.g., after the reference list) under a different heading if desired, or can be included in the reference list.

References in a special issue

Please ensure that the words 'this issue' are added to any references in the list (and any citations in the text) to other articles in the same Special Issue.

Reference style

Text: Indicate references by number(s) in square brackets in line with the text. The actual authors can be referred to, but the reference number(s) must always be given. References should be indicated at the end of the text.
